

Second Bachelor's, Dual Degrees, and Concurrent Majors

Multiple Degrees – Second Bachelor's or Dual Degrees in A&S; two diplomas are awarded.

- First degree earned, or being earned, from another UW college or another university
 - Students must complete the 2003 A&S Core Requirements in addition to the specific university requirements described in the University Catalog section "Graduation: Requirements and Procedures."
- First degree earned, or being earned, from the UW College of Arts and Sciences
 - The 2003 A&S Core requirements will be met just once, with the first A&S degree.
 - Students must meet the specific university second bachelor's or dual degree requirements described in the University Catalog section "Graduation: Requirements and Procedures."
- First degree earned, or being earned, in a College of Arts and Sciences Professional degree program with a modified A&S Core.
 - The remaining requirements of the 2003 A&S Core must be completed for the second degree.
 - Students must meet the specific university second bachelor's or dual degree requirements described in the University Catalog section "Graduation: Requirements and Procedures."

Multiple Majors – Concurrent Major; one diploma is awarded.

- Students earning a degree in another UW college and completing another major in the College of Arts and Sciences are not required to complete the A&S Core if the primary degree is not an A&S degree. If the A&S degree is listed as the primary, then the A&S Core is required.